

A stylized city skyline is depicted in the background using various shades of olive green. The skyline consists of several rectangular blocks of different heights, with some blocks having thin vertical lines extending from their tops, suggesting skyscrapers. The overall style is minimalist and graphic.

Archicago

Insight into Chicago's architecture